Call On Hon. J. T. Hinton.

PARIS, KY., March 12, 1897.

HON. JOHN T. HINTON,

DEAR SIR:—Your previous service to your party and people entitled you to, and secured for you, your nomination and election to the last House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Kentucky. Your services as a member of that body deserve the endorsement of the people of Bourbon county. We, therefore request that you become a candidate for re-election and assure you that such action on your part will be hailed with satisfaction by all who desire Democratic success and good government.

We have the honor to be,
Very truly,
YOUR DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS.

Bradley Wants To Be U. S. Senator.

A SPECIAL from Frankfort says: "Gov. W. O. Bradley has entered the fight for the United States Senatorship. His lieutenants are actively at work and it is asserted with confidence that the free silver Democrats will combine with the eight of ten Bradley Republicans and defeat the regular Republican nominee, ex-Congressman W. Godfrey Hunter."

TWENTY-ONE natives of Kentucky have seats in the Fifty-fifth Congress.

It was a matter of "wind" to the end. Mr. Fitzsimmons simply, outlasted Mr. Corbett.—[Exchange].

It is to be hoped that Nevada will be satisfied with having disgraced itself and not make another attempt.

PLUMS will not be ripe in Washington this year until Mr. McKinley harvests his tariff crop in Congress.

RESIGNATIONS of fourth-class postmasters in Kentucky are being received at Washington at the rate of five a day.

It is evident that the Legislature expects warm times next week. The Sergeant-at-Arms has been directed to furnish plenty of ice water.

EX-JUDGE W. W. CLEARY, for whose arrest President Johnson offered a reward of $10,000 after the assassination of Lincoln, is dead at Covington.

Of course, Kentucky was prominently, if not numerously, represented at the Carson Carnival of Physical Culture. Both Referee Siler and Gov. Sadler are sons of the Bluegrass sod.

THE nomination of John Hay to be Ambassador to Great Britain and of Gen. Horace Porter to be Ambassador to France were sent to the Senate Tuesday. They were confirmed Wednesday.

CHAIRMAN JOHNSTON, of the State Central Committee, Wednesday removed five members of the Fayette County Legislative District Committee and appointed successors at once. The committee as now constituted is said to be in favor of postponing the primary and reducing the entrance fees. A meeting of the committee has been called for to-morrow.

Legislative Doings.

SENATOR LINNEY's seat in the Legislature has been called into serious question by reason of the addition of Parkland to the district by the Council.

Senator Noe introduced in the Senate an anti-mob bill that provides penalties of the utmost severity.

President McKinley told Maj. Wood to go to Frankfort and help elect Hunter if he wanted any recognition, and the Maj. went.

Lieutenant Governor Worthington remains firm in his decision that no joint ballot can be taken for U. S. Senator until March 23d.

William H. Dyer will not get Hon. George W. Leiberth's seat in the Kentucky House. Speaker Blanford has decided that Dyer's election was invalid, the election not being called by the proper authority.

Mr. Noe introduced a bill Wednesday to prevent lynching and mob violence in this State. It has the provision for county liability to persons injured or heirs of persons killed at the hands of mobs, in the sum ranging from $1,000 to $2,500, depending on the extent of the crime. It embodies the ideas in the Governor's message.

SECRETARY Sherman has called for the resignation of Clinton Furbish, Director of the Bureau of American Republics, and selected Joseph Smith, of Ohio, to succeed him. There are some intimations of a protest, and the matter has been hung up, pending a conference of the Executive Committee of the bureau with Mr. Sherman.

An Illinois man named Needles wants to be Indian Commissioner. He is said to be a sharp man, but perhaps the Administration at Washington may not see the point.—[Exchange].

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

A wonderful thing is the telegraph line, as it flashes the news afar, letting us know when the pugilists dine, telling us just how they are, were we without its electrical legs, racing the long iron way, we should not be certain the number of eggs Fitz ate for his breakfast to-day.

Flemingburg High School will have sixteen graduates this year.

The Louisville and Nashville's new passenger depot at Montgomery, Ala., is to cost $300,000.

Gov. Bradley will to-day send Capt. Noel Gaines and fifty-five soldiers from Frankfort to Newport to prevent any demonstration and preserve order at the hanging.

The Winchester Democrat is responsible for the first big fish story of the season. It says: "Some of the boys at Ford caught a fifty-pound sturgeon this week without hook or line. The fish had managed to get between a couple of saw logs in such a manner that he could not get out."

Sporting Salad.

The saddest words of tongue or pen to Corbett are "Siler counted ten."

Why is it that the baseball team which "can't possibly lose" at this time of the year invariably does it later on?

Harry C. Percival, who managed the "All Kentuckians" last season, will accept the position of individual book-keeper at the German National Bank of Covington.

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers Of Stock, Crop, Etc.—Turf Notes.

Buyers are offering 4½ cents for Spring lambs.

Alma Mater, the famous brood mare, died near Lexington, several days ago. She was the dam of eight in the 2:30 list—among them Alcyone, Alcantara and Allandorf.

International Convention Y. M. C. A. Mobile April 25-28. International Conference General Secretaries, Selma April 24-28. For the meetings named above we have arranged with our connections for train service to Mobile, Ala., through Selma, thus obviating the necessity of $3 additional fare, which will have to be paid on tickets purchased via the other routes.

Queen & Crescent train service from Cincinnati to the South is too well known to require any praise. Low rates in effect for these meetings. All trains run via Chattanooga and Lookout Mountain. W. C. Rinearson, Gen'l Pass'r Agent, Cincinnati.

Nourish Him.

That's the whole secret in a word. We can cure no disease unless we can keep up the patient's strength. And there's only one way to do that—feed him. But if the system refuses food? Then use SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites. It goes STRAIGHT TO THE BLOOD, stops the wasting, rekindles the vital fire, makes new flesh and so renders a hopeful fight possible against ANY disease. Especially is this so in bronchial and lung troubles, in the relief and cure of which Scott's Emulsion has won its reputation. Book about it free.

Scott's Emulsion is no mysterious mixture. It is palatable, non-nauseating and infinitely preferable to the plain oil. The genuine has our trademark on salmon-colored wrapper. Get the genuine.

For sale at 50 cts. and $1.00 by all druggists.

Almost Distracted?

DO YOU EVER suffer from real nervousness? When every nerve seemed to quiver with a peculiar, creepy feeling, first in one place, and then another and all seemed finally to concentrate in a writhing jumble in the brain, and you become irritable, fretful and peevish; to be followed by an impatient, weakened condition of the nerve centers, ringing in the ears, and sleepless, miserable nights? Mrs. Eugene Searies, 110 Simonton St., Elkhart, Ind., says: "Nervous troubles had made me nearly insane and physicians were unable to help me. My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted. I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

Amusing Gambling.

ONE of our beloved lady friends, church member, too, became greatly interested in the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Because of her innate love of Americans and strong manhood, physical and intellectual, and her own judgment, she concluded that Corbett was the superior of Fitzsimmons, and on the morning of St. Patrick's day she proposed to her son-in-law to bet a basket of eggs (six dozen) against fifty cents that Corbett would whip Fitzsimmons. Of course Mrs. — was much interested in the fight. However, she lost the bet, and has paid the debt of honor.

The question now is: Is this little bet a sin? Or only an amusing wager of opinion on the result of the great prize fight? Bro. — will have to answer this, as both the bettors are among his best members.

Or, is it a bet at all? Or, would it be best for Sister — and Bro. — to apologize and sin no more? ***

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

AL G. FIELDS MINSTRELS.

Al G. Fields' Minstrels, the biggest and best company on the road, will appear Tuesday night at the Paris Grand Opera House. The company numbers sixty people, and contains many clever people known to the minstrel world. Al G. Fields' Minstrels always plays to large audiences, and the Grand will doubtless be packed Tuesday night.

Francis Jones the sweet singing comedian, and his well balanced company, gave a pleasing performance at the opera house last night in "In Old Madrid." The play was beautifully costumed and well acted. "The Follies of a Night" will be played to-night, and "A Subject of The Czar" to-morrow night. A Matinee will be given to-morrow afternoon.

Ellen Beach Yaw, the high range soprano, is making a Southern tour, accompanied by Miss Georgia Lay, pianist, and Maximilian Dick, violinist.

D. Burnett Foster, the gentlemanly booking agent of the Blind Boone Concert Co. was in the city Tuesday arranging for the appearance of his company here next month. The Blind Boone Co. gave an excellent concert here last season.

The horses and harness belonging to the late Alexander Herrmann were sold at auction at the American Horse Exchange last week. Three magnificent horses were sold for $815, and the other effects brought even smaller prices. Herrmann's steam yacht, Fra Diavolo, was to have been sold on the same day at Greenport, by order of a marshal, but claims were settled in full and the marshal released the craft.

Bad Blood Between Boxers.

THE boxing bout between the lightweight pugilists in "A Sporting Craze" will probably end in a knock-out some of these nights. There is bad blood between the fighters and they now go at each other in earnest. During a war of words in this city Tuesday friends of the blonde pugilist told the brunette fighter "Its in the play now for you to win the fight, but just wait till we get to Lester's home (Portsmouth, O.) and he'll beat your head off."
